PEER TUTORING IN A NUTSHELL

Michigan Law Peer Tutors are fellow students who have taken courses with a wide array of professors. Current students run the program under the supervision of Professor Patrick Barry. All tutors have a track record of academic excellence and have participated in clubs, journals, and a broad range of summer legal experiences.

Tutors can assist with understanding substantive material in your classes, but they also have advice for case briefing, resumes, cover letters, writing samples, outlining, exam prep, time management, and more.

The program is designed to be flexible: students can meet with peer tutors once or establish re-occurring meetings. Please email lawtutorshelp@umich.edu to get connected with a peer tutor or for general assistance.

PEER TUTORING

WHO IS PEER TUTORING FOR?

Anyone! The peer tutoring program is open to all students free of charge. We have tutors for every 1L doctrinal course, as well as a variety of upper-level classes. Tutors can help you understand concepts, walk through case briefs, or give helpful study tips.

WHEN SHOULD I REQUEST A TUTOR?

Tutors are available throughout the semester. We suggest meeting with a tutor early in the semester to avoid exam rush.

HOW DO I REQUEST A TUTOR?

Browse our tutor bios at bit.ly/MichiganLawPeerTutors and send an email to lawtutorshelp@umich.edu to get paired with a tutor.

HOW DO YOU MATCH TUTORS?

Tutors are matched based on course, professor, and availability. The peer tutoring program does its best to match students given their specific needs.

HOW OFTEN DO I MEET WITH MY TUTOR?

Up to you! Tutors can meet weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, or just once. There is no set schedule, location, or dates for tutoring.
