

JULIANNA LEE

EDUCATION

---

University of Michigan Law School , Ann Arbor, Mich.	Sept. 2002-May 2005
Degree	J.D., May 2005
Honors	Clara Belfield & Henry Bates Overseas Fellowship NAPABA Law Foundation Presidential Scholar Student Funded Fellowship
Activities	MICHIGAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, Editor Asian Pacific American Law Students Association, Executive Board Minority Affairs Program, Resource Committee Global Feminisms Project, Graduate Student Assistant
Harvard University , Cambridge, Mass.	Sept. 2000-May 2002
Degree	M.A. (Regional Studies—East Asia), May 2002
Thesis	Interpretation & Redefinition of the “New Woman” in 1920s Korea
Activities	HARVARD ASIA QUARTERLY, Korea Area Editor Harvard Korean Studies Graduate Student Conference, Co-Organizer Harvard Asia Center & Korea Institute, Graduate Student Assistant
Wellesley College , Wellesley, Mass.	Sept. 1995-May 1999
Degree	B.A. (Japanese Studies major, Economics minor), cum laude , May 1999

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

University of Michigan Law School , Ann Arbor, MI	July 2022- Present
Clinical Assistant Professor of Law
Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles , Los Angeles, CA	Oct. 2015 –June 2022
Supervising Attorney, Supporting Families Workgroup. Supervise a team of attorneys and paralegals, manage two court-based domestic violence clinics, and lead the foundation on domestic violence and family law matters. Head the Family Law Coalition, a group of active domestic violence legal services attorneys, and work with other advocates and the court to improve access to justice for survivors. Represent low-income clients in family law, domestic violence and immigration matters before the family court and immigration court in both short and long-term cases. Provide trainings to attorneys and the community on domestic violence and family law.
Roxas v. Marcos , Los Angeles, CA	May 2015 - Oct. 2015
Contract Attorney. Researched and drafted motion in support of Plaintiffs in civil liability case for human rights abuses and other criminal acts by Imelda and the late Ferdinand Marcos. Research issues centered on Defendant Imelda Marcos’ legal capacity to represent the Estate of Ferdinand Marcos, service of process and personal jurisdiction, and offensive collateral estoppel. Roxas v. Marcos , 969 P.2d 1209 (1998).
211 LA County , Los Angeles, CA	Oct. 2013 - May 2014
Project Manager, Veterans Care Coordination Project. Helped build, design, and manage a coordinated veteran-services pilot project for 211 LA County, a social-services information and referral organization. Coordinated service delivery with a network of partner veteran-services organizations and implemented the tools used to provide coordinated care (i.e., light case management) for veterans and military families.
Legal Aid Society of the District of Columbia , Washington, D.C.	Oct. 2007- July 2013
Supervising Attorney, Family Law Unit. Supervised three attorneys and a paralegal in the Family/Domestic Violence Unit. Director of Legal Aid’s Domestic Violence Underserved Victims Representation Project based out of the Domestic Violence Intake Center in D.C. Superior Court. Represented low-income clients in domestic-violence, child-custody, divorce, and other family-law cases that involved mental-health or immigration matters. Created and advocated for draft legislation on domestic violence and child custody as well as on treatment of low-income clients in D.C. Superior Court.

- Washington College of Law at American University, Washington, D.C. Aug.-Dec. 2010/2011
Adjunct Professor, Women and the Law Program. Taught seminar on Domestic Violence Law.
- National Council of La Raza, San Juan, P.R.; Washington, D.C. June 2007-May 2008
Consultant. Researched juvenile-justice statutes, policies, and programs in Puerto Rico. Wrote and revised a statistical brief for publication. Investigated programs for Latino youth on the U.S. mainland. Prepared La Raza lobbying effort by identifying successful local juvenile-justice strategies in Puerto Rico and on the mainland.
- Southern Poverty Law Center, Montgomery, Ala. Sept. 2005-May 2007
Law Fellow. Focused on juvenile-justice reform in Alabama and the broader southeastern United States. Other areas included conditions of confinement for prisoners and aliens awaiting deportation, sex registries, and access to educational and mental-health and other-disability services. Helped litigate consent decrees, provided direct representation to confined youth, organized a national teleconference, presented at statewide conference, and created family-resource directories and parent handbooks.
- Asian Americans Advancing Justice (formerly NAPALC), Washington, D.C. June 2004-Aug. 2004
Summer Law Clerk. Researched and revised anti-racial-profiling and hate-crimes legislation. Drafted policy platform urging U.S. ratification of CEDAW. Keynote speaker at Voices of Civil Rights.
- Bae, Kim & Lee, Seoul, S. Korea June 2003-Aug. 2003
Summer Associate. Researched South Korean and U.S. contract law.
- South Korean Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Trade, Seoul, S. Korea June 2002-Aug. 2002
Summer Intern. Drafted and edited civil-rights reports to UNHCHR and anti-racism campaign.
- Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C. June 1999-Mar. 2000
Asian Pacific American Institute for Congressional Studies Daniel K. Inouye Fellow. Researched and assisted in planning historical and cultural exhibits for the Smithsonian Asian American Studies Program.

SERVICE EXPERIENCE

- Domestic Violence and Homeless Services Coalition Allyship Program Oct. 2021 – Present
Ally. Build partnership with other community allies to engage in positive systems change for survivors of homelessness and domestic violence.
- California Partnership to End Domestic Violence April 2020 – Present
Policy Advisory Council member. Meet monthly to discuss and provide feedback on policy issues and initiatives affecting survivors in California.
- Asian/Pacific Islander Domestic Violence Resource Project, Washington, D.C. Mar. 2008-Dec. 2009
Board Member. Chair of Programs Committee and Resource Committee. Provided and oversaw domestic-violence-related legal, counseling, and educational services for metro-D.C. Asian/Pacific Islanders.
- Family Sunshine Center, Montgomery, Ala. Oct. 2006-Apr. 2007
Volunteer. Provided childcare for survivors of domestic violence during counseling. Tutored low-income kids.
- Greater Boston Legal Services, Boston, Mass. May 2001-Dec. 2001
Intern. Helped domestic-violence survivors solve immigration, work, housing, divorce, and custody issues.
- Chinatown College Workshop, Boston, Mass. Oct. 2000-Jan. 2002
Founder/Volunteer. Assisted low-income teens with SAT tutoring and college-application preparation.
- Chinatown Afterschool Program, Boston, Mass. Aug. 1998-Apr. 1999
Counselor. Created and led programs and activities for low-income elementary- and middle-school youth.
- Chinatown ESL Program, Boston, Mass. Aug. 1996-Apr. 1997
Instructor.
- Chinatown Summer Program, Boston, Mass. June 1996-Aug. 1996
Senior Counselor. Led summer-enrichment activities for Boston Chinatown teens

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Bar Admissions New York (admitted 2006); District of Columbia (admitted 2008); California (admitted 2015)

Publications     Remote Justice for Survivors: Crisis and Opportunity, MIE Journal, Volume 35, No. 1, Spring 2021.
Coauthor, Unequal by Design: How the Pandemic Response Exacerbated America's Two-Tiered System of Justice, MIE Journal, Volume 34, No. 4, Winter 2020.
Coauthor, Working with Alabama's Multiple Needs Program, ALABAMA CRIMINAL DEFENSE LAWYERS ASSOCIATION MONTHLY NEWSLETTER (2007)
Coauthor, Asian Americans under the Rehnquist Court, in AWAKENING FROM THE DREAM: PURSUING CIVIL RIGHTS IN A CONSERVATIVE ERA (Denise Morgan ed., 2005)

Misc.             Letter to the Editor: How a state bar plan could make shoddy legal service flourish, Los Angeles Times, Feb. 10, 2022.

Languages      Conversational Korean