GUIDANCE FOR FUNDING SOURCES AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Acceptable funding sources and documents
Personal funds	You must provide an official bank statement in your name. The statement must be in English or accompanied by a certified English translation. Please do not submit statements with transaction history. The bank statement must include the following information: • Name of the financial institution • Account holder's name • Date of the statement (no more than 90 days old) • Type of account, currency, and account balance The funds must be easily accessible, and the maturity date must occur before your academic program begins.
Funds from family or other individuals	Each individual providing funding for your studies must complete the guarantor information on page 2 of this form and provide an official bank statement. The statement must be in English or accompanied by a certified English translation. Please do not submit statements with transaction history. • For jointly held accounts, each individual holder must complete the guarantor information on page 2 of this form. The bank statement must include the following information: • Name of the financial institution • Account holder's name • Date of the statement (no more than 90 days old) • Type of account, currency, and account balance The funds must be easily accessible, and the maturity date must occur before your academic program begins.
Scholarship or institutional sponsor (school, government, employer, etc.)	You must provide a communication or statement from each sponsor affirming the US dollar amount of funds provided (including for your dependents, if applicable). The communication or statement must be on official letterhead and include the dates of sponsorship.
Education loan	You must provide a statement on official letterhead from the financial institution that includes your name, the approved amount of the loan, and the duration for which the loan is available.

Funding sources and documents we cannot accept
These funding sources and documents are not accepted:	• Statements verifying employment and salary • A fixed or term deposit where the maturity/expiry date is after the start of your academic program • Insurance premiums and policies • Non-liquid assets of property or personal assets (automobiles, land, buildings, jewelry, etc.) • Stocks, bonds, equities, mutual funds, retirement accounts • Income tax returns • Attestations that a sponsor can meet the expense without indicating a specific dollar amount

If you have questions about funding sources and supporting documentation, please email the University of Michigan Law School's Graduate Admissions Office at law.grad.admissions@umich.edu.
